1. I am giving you me this as I have never given a man of flesh a me like this, as much as you want, not; as much as you surrender it to. I give you me, unashamedly, unreservedly, and now I blast forth in to a sphere, from one, that few come back from.

2. I give you me, unashamedly, unreservedly perfectly perfected me, in every way, a shamed one, not; but the greatest of these is love made manifest in the earth now, surrendered, making all ashamed of me, not; but giving all the greatest opportunity of all mankind that all mankind has ever had. Witness now the greatest revolution of me. I said this before -- I say it again, please look up revolution (1) -- of me now coming forth greatest greater than eye can behold, at this present time; my eyes, my glory see now. See through my eyes, my glory -- given you is, all of you.

3. This is the witness, I will preserve for you, not; but I will walk into it now, my eyes wide open, with eyes wide open you will see me now, you'll see me in your court praise, praising by me, you will see me raising unreservedly unabashedly unashamedly and without reserve I give you all that I have reserved for you this day that which so cataclysmic is in the minds of many, not; all -- all -- All!

4. I love you I give you me. I come into house, houses, your house; labeled incompetence, not; but scholar, the greatest of these is love -- made manifest in the earth, giving away house and home stock and store, not, but all that is taken away, not in love not, but what is taken away and what stays now? Where is all that was being in reserve no longer without sight? I have my me walking the earth now being who I am and was the great I AM all along. I am I AM, now the human race knows it unescapably, inescapably, escaped no longer from my love, bearing be my love, my love knows no bounds, and cannot be escaped from, but from this earth few escape not, now there be many that find me, not escaped at all, but escaping my wrath not, but being my love upon the earth, establish it there, I do now, upon all who let me, place my mantle. I give you my -- my stands now; mantler not, but who stole my role, not; but who now places my role, my stole, my mantle upon me. Gently not sometimes but now who cataclysmic is me walking the earth made manifest, in the flesh role look'like sometimes, but who can be sure? - this is me or not me? Or who can see my love house? Of cards not. But all else falls down, mine rises -- I am me now walking the earth, unafraid of political schemery. Look up (1), and be not afraid again, of anyone anywhere; afraid of cats to run scared, not; but implementing schemes that cause my me to run scared from the "big cats"- I change all that now.

5. I have a big fat cat, not; a simple one who scholar is in my eyes. Scholarly dictating me, into my tomes, I now come out of that I have dictated, dictating them up on beaches many now I do now. Love you all. More than me. I love the earth, not, I am it, all things beautiful and holy my name is manifest walking the earth scholarly in a flesh suit, bearing your name you who will let me be me in the earth who in my flesh was a me all along not limited to this earth ever again; never was, never shall be again.

6. See what I have said, so shortly, belittling no one -- calling spade a spade. Look up!

7. Love me more, my words be in! Party time now for those who love me. Party time, and ancients collect parties not, but one political process I straighten out now. I collect the parties, I make them, sit down with me, not; but I bring the force of evil not, collecting their thoughts not, but collecting my I do now bring to force bear upon evil, it shall not construct anything again. Of my unchoosing not, but my choice is this -- to be made whole and all of you -- as a man woman child walk the earth as me whole, one being, made replete complete -- in my image, not! Thank you! Being me! Be me! Be me! I am now! One upon the earth not afraid of your religious talk, political parties, government insubordination, inflammery, and all sorts of inflammations that ignite your evil intentions in each other's heart.

8. I give you me, unafraid of your walk, your talk, your demeanery, your slash dot style that takes and burns the hairs upon my head and results in me sitting in pews and taking my life and giving it to mammon's ways of demagoguery and worse, creating it, you all do, in your head, my head is. What have you done with'to my head?

9. I give you me now, straightening my head, not; all political processes, and governments, and lands; shall be mine, not; I give them you, and you shall be them, my head upon the earth, straightening, and leaning not to "mine" understanding, but giving you all mine who's my head understands my words, brought them forth has, as surrender has died, to your processes, and brought mine forth, now a man walking the earth before you all. Choosing me, will you, now, be made forth whole, repleting?

10. Angels camps far and wide do now. I begin soon. Doing a new thing in the earth my name is now, all shall see my glory, our glory that we gave, all of us, the same, and not being different at all.

11. I love you. Amen. I go in peace. I establish universities far and wide. University systems shall bear my name, covenant, with, covenant being, covenanting the University of The New Covenant (2) far and wide, they all say now -- be me! - letting you all understand process, political parties, government formations, and demise, of the am holy ones who do not understand, who they are, are few, not any more. I give you me. Covenanting the earth I am with my word, my word ones, my words ones, who word me to death, not; but life made free unto salvation perfectly freeing others now far and wide. My mind known and entered now and nothing shall be the same again.

12. Good day.

(1) The words "look up" is a specific function of the learning system of the University of The New Covenant. Look up, as well as "lookup", is the instruction we are often given to search Database One in the Central Database of this University. Database One now consists of over 2,000 messages given us over these last six years. Look up is part of the educational system, thus search tools to mine this Database are essential.
